

Arrest made in 2010 Elizabeth Homicide

The Union County Homicide Task Force arrested an Elizabeth man yesterday and charged him in connection with a February 2010 homicide, announced Prosecutor Theodore J. Romankow.

Hasheek Davis, 28, a verified member of the Bloods street gang, was arrested in New Brunswick. Davis is charged with the murder of Dean Bonds, 35, which occurred at 380 Irvington Ave, Elizabeth on February 10, 2010. Bonds was shot multiple times in the first floor hallway of the building and died at the scene.

The investigation was handled by Task Force Detectives Chris DiFabio and Robert Wronski.

Davis is being held on $1 million bail.

These criminal charges are mere accusations. The defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
