ADJUDICATION OF CERTAIN VOTE BY MAIL BALLOTS

Commissioner Varnerin announced that she will abstain from review of all Berkeley Heights ballots.

The Commissioners rejected ballots for the following reasons: unaffiliated voters voted both the democratic and republican ballot; no certificate was contained in the envelope; no ballot was contained in the envelope; and voter moved out of county.

The Commissioners approved ballots for the following reasons: there is no inner envelope in the outer envelope – just the ballot and certificate; and a democratic voter changed their party to UNA at DMV, then voted the Democratic ballot.

The Commissioners voted to send ballot cure letters to certain voters.
