

UNION COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 2022
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES

CALL TO ORDER

Chair Williams presided over the meeting and called the meeting to order at 6:11 P.M.

ROLL CALL

Roll call showed Chair Rebecca Williams, Vice Chair Christopher Hudak, Commissioner James E. Baker Jr., Commissioner Angela R. Garretson, Commissioner Christopher Hudak, Commissioner Bette Jane Kowalski, and Commissioner Lourdes M. Leon, were present; with Commissioner Sergio Granados and Commissioner Kimberly Palmieri-Mouded absent.

Also present were County Manager Edward T. Oatman, County Counsel Bruce H. Bergen, Esq., and Clerk of the Board James E. Pellettiere.

PRAYER AND SALUTE TO THE FLAG

The prayer and salute to the flag were led by Clerk of the Board Pellettiere.

STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE OPEN PUBLIC MEETINGS ACT

The statement of compliance with the Open Public Meetings Act was read by Clerk of the Board Pellettiere.

APPROVAL OF COMMUNICATIONS

Note and File

Chair Williams called for a motion to approve the Communications. On a motion made by Commissioner Garretson and seconded by Commissioner Mirabella roll call showed seven members of the Board voted in the affirmative; with Commissioner Granados and Commissioner Palmieri-Mouded absent.

PUBLIC COMMENT PORTION

The meeting was opened to the public for the purpose of commenting on Resolutions being offered for adoption and any governmental issue that a member of the public feels may be of concern to the residents of the county.

Bruce Paterson, of Garwood, made comments relative to Chair Williams and her Chairship over the Board of County Commissioners, noting her as well-spoken and polite. He made comments relative to the budget and the running fund balance, insisting these funds could be used to offset municipal tax increases. Relative to Reso No. 2022-102, he asked for a breakdown of funds for CAD and RMS respectively. Relative to Reso No. 2022-103, he asked how the cost of the shared services agreement of Roselle was calculated. Relative to Reso No. 2022-110, he inquired about the vendor's experience as it relates to the cited services.

Relative to Reso No. 2022-102, County Manager Oatman advised that he did not have those figures, but they would be provided to the public speaker following the meeting.

Relative to Reso No. 2022-103, County Manager Oatman advised that the cost for these services was based on volume of calls for the services being rendered to the Borough of Roselle.

Relative to Reso No. 2022-110, Administrator DiRado advised that this item had been awarded through an open RFP process, noting that the cited vendor had been one of two to submit a proposal. She added that the selected vendor had extensive experience and this would be the third time they had been employed by the County to provide related services. She noted that the vendor was also used for similar services by twelve additional counties within New Jersey.

COMMISSIONER REPORTS AND COMMENTS

Commissioner Garretson shared that she had the opportunity to usher in Dr. Martin Luther King's Birthday by participating in several county-wide programs, including two very inspiring, inter-faith programs in Elizabeth and Plainfield. She added that MLK's Birthday was a day of reflection as a means to recharge and refocus efforts honoring Dr. King's legacy. She added that it was nice to see the community engagement relative to this event. On another note, she spoke about recent challenges and hardships experienced by residents related to the COVID-19 pandemic and the new emerging variant and encouraged residents to remain vigilant and prioritize safety, adding that the County was committed to taking the necessary steps to prioritize to do the same for all its residents. To close, she noted that she was looking forward to a productive year ahead under the leadership of Chair Williams and Vice Chair Hudak. She also extended a warm welcome to Commissioner Baker.

Commissioner Leon thanked the MLK Committee of Elizabeth for inviting her to participate in their 37th annual inter-faith service in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King on Monday. She referenced the tremendous impact and contributions of Dr. King, noting that we should honor him by living in unity, peace, and equality. On another note, she advised that the U.C. Sheriff's Office had positions available for qualified candidates and encouraged interested residents to visit the County website for additional information relative to the application process. She added that she, as well as her colleagues on the Board, respected and valued the commitment to excellence and professionalism demonstrated by these officers. To close, she encouraged residents to get their COVID-19 vaccinations if they hadn't already done so, and or get their booster, as a means to contend with the emerging variant.

Commissioner Kowalski congratulated Chair Williams and Vice Chair Hudak on their new roles on the Board and welcomed Commissioner Baker, adding that she looked forward to once again serving with her colleagues in the coming year. She noted the several events that took place throughout the County in honor of Dr. King, adding that she was looking forward to the upcoming events next month in honor of Black History Month.

Commissioner Baker shared that he had the honor and privilege to attend an MLK celebration in Rahway, adding that the occasion allowed for an opportunity to reflect on Dr. King's accomplishments and the effects the civil rights movement of the time have had on this nation. He noted the importance of expanding upon the ideals and principles of Dr. King. He added that Dr. King believed in the United States of America and the principles and ideals upon which this Country was founded, noting the importance of living our lives accordingly in honor of Dr. King's legacy. Commissioner Baker noted he was honored to be able to serve on the Commissioner Board, adding that he was committed to helping Union County grow and develop in a positive way for all residents.

Commissioner Mirabella had no comments.

Vice Chair Hudak advised that on Wednesday, January 26th, the County would be offering a free online workshop focused on financial education for special needs families, adding that Commissioner Palmieri-Mouded would be serving as the moderator for the online course. He noted that the workshop would feature helpful information from financial experts from the Mid Atlantic Resource Group, including budgeting and estate planning, with a focus on unique obstacles faced by households with special needs children.

Chair Williams recognized the many partnerships formed throughout the COVID-19 pandemic between the County and other organizations to ensure that residents had access to essential resources, including testing and vaccinations. She thanked the NJ Department of Health and Plainfield Mayor Adrian O. Mapp for facilitating a new testing site in Plainfield at the Plainfield Performing Arts Center, noting that the site would be open six days a week to all County residents. On another note, she spoke relative to the numerous upcoming events scheduled in honor of Black History Month, beginning with the raising of the tri-color red, black, and green flag on February 1st in front of the Union County Courthouse in Elizabeth. She noted that Black History Month was a time to recommit to the future and continue honoring and rediscovering achievements and obstacles of the past and present. She also highlighted an upcoming performance of August Wilson's Fences on February 18th at the U.C. Performing Arts Center in Rahway. She also reminded residents about an upcoming free virtual lecture on February 24th by Professor Keith E. Walcott of Union County College entitled, "African American Survival: from Jim Crow to Civil Rights and Beyond" and encouraged interested residents to register for the lecture.

ADJOURNMENT

Chair Williams asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting. On a motion made by Commissioner Mirabella and seconded by Vice Chair Hudak, roll call showed seven members of the Board voted in the affirmative; with Commissioner Granados and Commissioner Palmieri-Mouded absent.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:35 P.M.
