

The Union County Prosecutor's Office is hiring agents to join our team!

Our Office, led by Prosecutor William A. Daniel, is seeking talented and motivated individuals who share our commitment to fair and just prosecutions. We are looking to fill per diem legal analyst positions. Assignment within the office is based on prior experience, as well as the needs of the office.

Requirements: Candidates must be in good standing with the New Jersey State Bar. Prior experience in the practice of criminal law preferred.

Salary: The position is per diem, for approximately 20 hours a week and pays $50 an hour for a yearly average of $50,000

Benefits: Legal Analyst positions are considered per diem and therefore are not entitled to benefits.

Special Note: An offer of employment with the Union County Prosecutor's Office is contingent upon a candidate successfully passing a comprehensive background investigation and the final approval of the County.

Application Procedures: To apply, applicants should submit a cover letter, resume, writing sample, contact information for three references, and law school transcript to UCPOjobs@ucpo.org and indicate "Legal Analyst" in the email subject.
