History, Location & Highlights

The Township of Springfield is located in the north of Union County and is bordered by Essex County to the north, Union to the east, Cranford and Westfield to the south, and Mountainside and Summit to the west. The Township is nestled at the foot of the Watchung Mountains and offers many restaurants, retail and entertainment centers. The Township has wonderful recreation amenities including Lenape Park, the Houdaille Quarry, Meisel Avenue Park and the world famous Baltusrol Golf Club. Springfield was formed as a township in 1798, and was officially incorporated as one of the first 104 townships in New Jersey. It has a rich Revolutionary War history and was the site of the famous Battle of Springfield in 1780. Springfield has a township form of government, with a five-member Township Committee.

Transportation

Interstate 78 runs through the northern part of Springfield and Route 22 runs through the southern part. Although the township does not have a train station, residents are currently served by stations in neighboring communities of Summit and Union. The township is also served by NJ Transit bus routes 52, 65, 66, 70, 95, 114 and 117. For workers in Springfield Township, 83.1% commute by private automobile, and 10.9% use public transportation. Nearly 50% worked outside of Union County and 14% worked outside of New Jersey. The average commute time for a worker from Springfield is 32.1 minutes.
