

All Aboard the Train Thru Time!

NORTHEAST CORRIDOR & JERSEY COAST LINES

The Northeast Corridor was once the domain of the Pennsylvania Railroad, now the main line between Trenton and NYC. While many trains stop in Elizabeth and Rahway, far fewer stop in North Elizabeth, so be sure to check before boarding.

Elizabeth

From the Elizabeth station, downtown, three sites are within a half-mile of the station:

First Presbyterian Church of Elizabeth & Snyder Academy

42 Broad St.

The school Alexander Hamilton attended in 1772. Exit the station onto Broad St., and walk east to 42 Broad Street.

Boxwood Hall State Historic Site

1073 East Jersey St.

Boxwood Hall

Nathaniel Bonnell Homestead & Belcher-Ogden Mansion

1045 & 1046 East Jersey St.

Exit First Presbyterian to left. Turn right onto E. Jersey St., and follow it to 1073 E. Jersey, then 1045 & 1046 East Jersey St.

North Elizabeth

Two significant sites are a mile-plus walk from North Elizabeth station. Please note: not all trains stop at North Elizabeth:

Evergreen Cemetery

1137 N. Broad St., Hillside

A virtual museum of funerary art, this 1853 interdenominational burial ground has more than 10,000 monuments. From the No.

Elizabeth station, head west on North Ave. for 3/10 mile, then turn right onto Cross Ave. Head north for a half-mile, then bear left onto Lower Rd. Turn left onto North Broad St. The cemetery entrance is on your right.
