Proposals Submitted – One (1):

1. United Way of Greater Union County (UWGUC)

Summary of Proposals:

UWGUC: Submitted a comprehensive proposal addressing the needs of the Workforce Development Board as set forth in the WIOA In-School and Out-of-School Youth Services Consortium Request for Proposal issued by the Workforce Development Board.

United Way of Greater Union County (UWGUC) is a well-recognized non-profit community based organization that has been working within Union County for 45 years. UWGUC mission is "to improve lives and build strong communities by uniting individuals and organizations with the will, passion, expertise, and resources needed to solve problems."

UWGUC has an extensive amount of Consortium management experience by overseeing such programs as: Union County Emergency Food and Shelter Program (14 partners), Flex Funds (8 partners), Community Development Block Grant (16 partners) and Focus on Families initiative (8 partners). UWGUC is also the current sub-grantee UCWDB Youth Employment and Training Consortium (YETC) for Out-of-School Youth.

Consortium Partners will include Proceed, Community Access, Urban League, HomeFirst, and Plainfield YMCA.

UWGUC will also partner with the American Job Centers, Department of Human Services, Elizabeth and Plainfield Board of Education, and Department of Youth Services.

There will be a focus on maximizing youth engagement and participation. To do this UWGUC plans to increased participation and opportunity for residents in Western Union County with the inclusion of a Drop In Center at the Plainfield YMCA.

UWGUC plans to enhance Career Pathways by:

- Providing education opportunities and credit recovery programs for ISY
- Increasing relationships with local Board of Educations (Plainfield and Elizabeth)
- Being a member of the TLD Talent Network
- Forging partnerships with Fortune 500 companies, fast tracking participants for interviews and placements.
- Increasing time/funding allocated for "Job Developer"

UWGUC has an understanding of client barriers and has structured their program to ensure multiple sites by utilizing UWGUC Family Success Centers, providing flexible hours including weekends, and trauma informed case manager practices.

UWGUC will serve a minimum of 40 ISY and 45 OSY.

Vendor Ranking:

1 UWGUC

Recommendation: Vendor recommended for funding.

Purpose/justification of recommended action: UWGUC's proposal satisfies the primary purpose of the UCWDB's procurement which is to manage and coordinate a high- quality In-School and Out-of-School Youth Services Consoritum implementing and providing Outreach, Recruitment and Orientation, Intake, Eligibility Determination and Registration, Objective Assessment and Referral, Individual Service Strategy (ISS), Case Management, Access to a Range of Services (WIOA Required Youth Elements), Follow-up Services, High- Quality Partnerships, and collaboration with American Job Centers.

COMMITTEE: Lisa Bonanno, Elizabeth Paskewich, Gina Tuesta; and Kraig M. Dowd, Esq., Special Counsel, as advisor to the Evaluation Committee.

Proposals Submitted – One (1):

1. B & M Consultants, Inc. (B&M)

Summary of Proposal:

B & M Consultants, Inc. (B&M) submitted a comprehensive proposal addressing the needs of the Workforce Development Board as set forth in the WorkFirst New Jersey Programs Request for Proposal issued by the Workforce Development Board.

Area Served: Eastern Union County

Proposal included the following services:

TANF: Job Search, Community Work Experience Program (CWEP), CWEP Transitional, CWEP + Education Directly Related to Employment, CWEP + Job Skills Directly Related to Employment,

GA/SNAP: Job Readiness/Life Skills, Community Work Experience Program (CWEP), CWEP Transitional, Alternative Work Experience Program

B& M Consultants, Inc has been providing WFNJ services to the Eastern side of Union County for approximately 15 years. This year, B & M has moved to a new location within Elizabeth, conveniently located close to Union County Social Services. B & M has historically provided a wide variety of WFNJ programs, enabling them to serve a diverse WFNJ population. B & M does provide educational programs such as Certified Home Health Aide, potentially providing clients with the foundation for a new career.

B&M provided a clear proposal with detailed curriculum. B&M has the financial oversight of an outside CPA to ensure fiscal compliance. B&M also has the WFNJ experience to understand program management and the importance of Partner communication. The Evaluation Committee would have liked additional written content regarding past history/success with chosen WFNJ activities and employment/placement history/success with CHHA and other WFNJ activities.

Ideally, the Evaluation Committee would have liked to have seen the following:

- Updated ETPL report
- More content in Proposal
- Additional audit review

Procurement Process Overview:

May 24, 2017: WDB adopted a Resolution specifically authorizing and ratifying the use of the competitive contracting procedures set forth in N.J.S.A. 40A:11-4.1, et. seq, for the subject RFP to secure proposals for WorkFirst New Jersey Programs.

June 22, 2017: WDB issued a Public Notice advertising for the receipt of proposals for the subject RFP.

June 22, 2017: WDB issued the RFP through its website.

June 29, 2017: Technical Assistance Conference was held and was attended by potential vendor.

July 8, 2017: WDB issued Addenda #1 to the RFP (providing answers to all timely filed questions received in writing from potential vendors).

July 12, 2017: Submission deadline passed and the WDB opened the one (1) proposal received by the deadline – B&M Consultants, Inc.

All Evaluation Committee members submitted a signed conflict of interest certification as required by N.J.A.C. 5:34-4.3(f) prior to receiving a copy of the submitted proposal for review.

All evaluations submitted indicated B&M met the requirements set forth in the RFP and fully understand the needs of the WDB for purposes of Operating the American Job Centers.

PRE-EXISTING CIRCUMSTANCES

In addition to being at an economic disadvantage, many Union County youth experience homelessness, teen pregnancies and parenting, poor academic or education performance, possess limited positive social skills and poor positive interactions with adults and other authoritative figures.

Program Model

Out-of-school youth 16-24 years old, with one or more additional risk factors, obtain an employment and/or education outcome. Priority has been given to:

- Justice Involved youth
- Pregnant or parenting youth
- Youth with Disabilities
- Current or former foster youth
- Refugee/immigrant youth eligible to participate
- Youth residing in a public housing program
- Homeless/runaway youth
- Youth that have dropped out of school

Program Model

Utilizing a case management approach, OSY receive a comprehensive set of services that:

- address barriers to success
- result in the development of an individual service strategy and career pathway for each youth
- include subsidized work experience
- provide access to educational services (GED, Occupational Training, ESL, Vocational)
- provide ongoing support in attaining education and/or securing a job for at least one year after exit

Program Model

The YEPP program services are provided by the Youth Employment Training Consortium (YETC) that is made up of:

- Sub-grantees Recruitment, enrollment, case management, supportive services, work experience, coordinating educational services and the 14 elements
- Additional Partner Agencies Access to youth, services aligned with 14 elements, services that address barriers such as child care and housing, and leadership in addressing systemic barriers
- UWGUC Centralized youth services & job development, point of contact with One-Stop and WIB, technical assistance and professional development, and monitors for contract compliance
- Union County WIB Allocating funds, monitors Lead Agency performance, quality of service and cost effectiveness, and reporting on performance to the workforce development board
