

At the Union County National Night Out for Everyone, there is a activity where someone will be painting pictures on people's faces.

Face painting can make a person's face look like different things.

I can decide to get my face painted or not. It's my choice. If I want to get my face painted, I can pick a design.

When the artist paints my face, they will use a soft brush. The brush will feel gentle on my skin. The paint feels wet. It might tickle, but it is safe and soft.

If I feel uncomfortable, I can ask to stop. It's okay to stop anytime. I can take a break or choose not to finish.

When my face painting is done, I can look in a mirror and see how it looks.

I can show my face painting to my friends and family. They will see the fun colors and designs.

Whether I choose to get my face painted or not, I can still have fun at Union County National Night Out for Everyone.

There are many things to do and see. It's important to enjoy myself and feel happy.
