Tours, Exhibits & Special Events

Unless noted otherwise, sites are open Saturday, Oct. 18 and Sunday, Oct. 19 • 12 noon to 5 pm

Most sites offer collectible Union County history trading cards. All sites offer the Union County Passport — pick one up to have stamped at each site you visit.

★ This symbol designates a site within the National Park Service's Crossroads of the American Revolution National Heritage Area, offering a unique stamp for the Passport to Your National Parks book.

Berkeley Heights

Deserted Village of Feltville / Glenside Park ★

1 Cataract Hollow Rd. | 908-527-4900 | ucnj.org/dv

- Guided tours of the Village (or self-guided)
- Visit the general store and museum
- 2 pm, both days: Presentation in Masker's Barn about the artwork of Roberto de la Selva, with a display about his murals and a wood carving.
- Hayrides
- Apple cider-pressing
- For children: archaeology activity and old-fashioned games
- Quill pen writing
- Roast marshmallows on a campfire at the circa-1882 carriage house
- Meet characters from the Village's past, including founder David Felt, Revolutionary War soldier John Willcocks and others — plus the research team of historians and archaeologists

Most buildings and activities in the Village are wheelchair-accessible, but spread out over a large, hilly area. From the main parking lot, a hay wagon (accessible for wheelchairs and strollers) will transport visitors around the site, stopping at major points. A golf cart will be available to transport visitors needing assistance with mobility. Wheelchair-accessible parking available near the Church/Store.

Attendants at the entrance on Cataract Hollow Road will direct visitors to parking; please inform attendant of accommodations needed for people with disabilities.

Berkeley Heights
