

The Union County Board
of County Commissioners Presents

Four Centuries in a Weekend

Saturday, Oct. 17
& Sunday, Oct. 18, 2026
12–5 pm • Free admission

Explore the historic sites of Union County, and celebrate our nation's 250th!

Visit www.ucnj.org/4c for late-breaking event information and more.

ucnj.org

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE

UNION COUNTY
BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Department of Parks and Recreation

Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs

Tours, Exhibits & Special Events

Unless noted otherwise, sites are open on Saturday, Oct. 17 and Sunday, Oct. 18, 12 noon – 5 pm.

Most sites offer collectible Union County history trading cards. All sites offer the Union County Passport — pick one up to have stamped at each site you visit.

This year, most participating sites offer a presentation or activity in celebration of our nation's 250th anniversary.

★ This symbol designates a site within the National Park Service's Crossroads of the American Revolution National Heritage Area, offering a unique stamp for the Passport to Your National Parks book.

Berkeley Heights

Deserted Village of Feltville / Glenside Park ★

1 Cataract Hollow Rd. | 908-527-4900 | ucnj.org/dv

- Guided tours (or self-guided tours) of this Village — this year, commemorating the 250th anniversary of the death of New Jersey militia soldier John Willcocks
- Hayrides
- Apple cider-pressing
- Roast marshmallows on a campfire
- Visit the Church/Store and museum
- For children: old-fashioned games; archaeology activity; quill pen writing
- Meet notable characters from the Village's past, including Revolutionary War soldier John Willcocks
- See ongoing building restorations, including five roofs

Most buildings and activities in the Village are wheelchair-accessible, but spread out over a large, hilly area. From the main parking lot, a hay wagon (accessible for wheelchairs and strollers) will transport visitors around the site, stopping at major points. Wheelchair-accessible parking available near the Church/Store.

Attendants at the entrance on Cataract Hollow Road will direct visitors to parking; please inform attendant of accommodations needed for people with disabilities.

Berkeley Heights

Littell-Lord Farmstead

31 Horseshoe Rd.

Open Saturday only
Closed Sunday

- Tours of the historic farmhouse
- Family-friendly festival (dogs welcome too) includes: fishing derby; live music; food trucks; beer & wine garden; a spooky trail; pumpkin painting; and artisan vendors
- Special appearance of Revolutionary war Re-enactors and George Washington, courtesy of Heritage Trail Foundation

Grounds are wheelchair-accessible, however house interior is not. Accessible parking on site. Standard parking along Horseshoe Rd. and Mountain Ave. shoulders.

Clark

Dr. William Robinson Plantation Museum ★

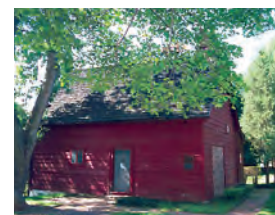

593 Madison Hill Rd.

732-340-1571 | drrobinsonmuseum.org

- Learn about life here during the 1690s, in this 3-story museum with a garden of herbs considered medicinal in the colonial era. One of very few physicians in New Jersey at the time, Dr. Robinson used plants and herbs in his practice.
- Learn about the Revolutionary War
- BHistorical will present historically accurate reenactments and demonstrations, bringing American history alive

First floor of building is wheelchair-accessible. Second floor and basement are visible via a video tour shown on the first floor.

Street parking available.

Cranford

Crane-Phillips House

Both days, 12–4 pm

124 North Union Ave.

908-276-0082 | cranfordhistoricalsociety.org

- Guided tours of this circa-1843 cottage and its surrounding grounds showcase what life was like for a modest family during the Victorian era
- “Cranford in the American Revolution” exhibit: includes maps, letters and clothing
- Colonial crafts and games

Building and bathroom are wheelchair-accessible, except the 2nd floor, which can be seen on a video shown on the 1st floor.

Park in the nearby municipal lot or the Police Dept. lot behind the museum.

Cranford

UCNJ Historic Tree Grove

1033 Springfield Ave. | on the UCNJ Union College campus, near the Observatory | Google UCNJ trees

- Continuous tours of this grove of 75+ trees – each an offspring of a tree noteworthy in American history. Many trees here have a connection to events or people of the American Revolution. Learn about American history, celebrating our nation's founding 250 years ago.

Historic Tree Grove is on an expansive but flat lawn; accessible for people with mobility disabilities, but may pose some challenges.

Ample parking in paved lot opposite the Tree Grove.

William Miller Sperry Observatory

UCNJ Union College, 1033 Springfield Ave.
908-709-7000 | asterism.org

- Tours of the observatory by members of Amateur Astronomers Inc. include both large telescopes (among the largest in the eastern United States) – knowledgeable members will answer astronomy-related questions
- Outdoors: Safe solar-viewing through a telescope, weather permitting

Solar-observing and Observatory classroom are wheelchair-accessible. Indoor telescopes accessed by climbing stairs.

Ample parking near the Observatory and in adjacent college campus lots. Observatory is near the back of UCNJ Union College campus, between Springfield Ave. and Gallows Hill Rd.

Elizabeth

Belcher-Ogden Mansion & Bonnell Homestead

1046 East Jersey St. | 908-581-7555
visithistoricalelizabethnj.org | @HistoricalElizabethNJ

- Tours of Belcher-Ogden Mansion in English and Spanish

Building is not wheelchair-accessible. For questions about specific accessibility needs, call 908-581-7555.

Free parking on site at Bonnell House, 1045 East Jersey St.

Siloam-Hope First Presbyterian Church & Snyder Academy

42 Broad St. | 908-353-2131

Open Saturday only | Closed Sunday

- Tours of the historic cemetery at 10 am and 1 pm
- Visit the historic church and Snyder Academy, 12–5 pm

Site is wheelchair-accessible via ramp entry to church, elevator into Snyder Academy on Caldwell Ave., and cemetery walking path.

Park on local streets or in public garages nearby at 37 Caldwell Place and 1167 Dickinson Street.

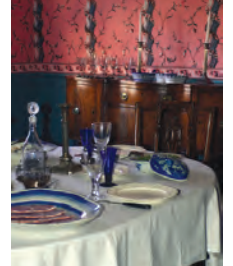

Elizabeth

Boxwood Hall State Historic Site

1073 E. Jersey St. | 908-282-7617

- Guided tours describe people and events connected with this residence, including Hamilton, Dayton, Lafayette, and the day of George Washington's inauguration as our first President, when he dined here
- “Before the Semiquincentennial” exhibit: artifacts from previous celebrations of milestones in U.S. history

1st floor is wheelchair-accessible via rear ramp, and has new ADA-compliant restrooms. 2nd floor may be accessible with personal assistance. Visitor seating on both floors.

Park in lot behind building or use street parking.

Elizabeth Public Library

11 S. Broad St. | 908-354-6060
elizpl.org | FB: elizabethlibrary

Open Saturday only
Closed Sunday

- Visit this historic gem — the last remaining active Carnegie Library in Union County, which opened in 1912
- Saturday, 11 am: Public unveiling of the restored Red Lion Inn sign on the library's front lawn, marking the former site of the Red Lion Inn, a noted early tavern tied to Elizabeth's colonial and Revolutionary-era history
- Exhibit on 3rd floor: “The Red Lion Inn & Elizabeth's Libraries” (on view Oct. 2–31), uses interpretive materials, images, documents and brochures to highlight the inn's history and its connection to the establishment of Elizabeth Public Library

Library building and parking lot are fully ADA-compliant.

Free, secure parking available on site. Enter the library parking lot from either Rahway Ave. or South Broad St. If visiting other sites in Elizabeth, vehicle has to be moved from the library lot. Additional visitor parking available at Bollwage Garage on Caldwell Place.

Fanwood

Historic Fanwood Train Station Museum

230 North Ave. | 908-322-8236
Facebook: Fanwood Museum

- Features local history, focused on rail service over the years
- Exhibiting American flags from throughout our nation's 250-year history, and a collection of vintage tin wind-up toys

Building is wheelchair-accessible.

Ample parking available at the Train Station. Museum is directly next to the parking lot on north side.

Hillside

Woodruff House, ★ Eaton Store Museum & Phil Rizzuto All Sports Exhibit

111 Conant St. | 908-353-8828
hillsidehistoricalsociety.org

- Tours of Woodruff House (dating to 1735) and the Eaton Store (dating to 1900)
- Site highlights the apple orchards that the Woodruffs were known for, including their apple cider and apple cider vinegar, which were shipped to southern ports
- Barn houses the Rizzuto All Sports Exhibit of memorabilia from local baseball legend Phil Rizzuto
- Pick up a brochure with map to take a self-guided tour of historic Evergreen Cemetery, located nearby (listed below)
- Activity for kids: make papier-mâché apples
- For sale: apples, apple pastries, and apple cider donuts

Grounds, barn and Rizzuto exhibit are wheelchair-accessible; interior of house and store are not wheelchair-accessible.

Ample street parking available.

Evergreen Cemetery

1137 North Broad St.

- Request booklet at Woodruff House (above) for a self-guided tour of this historic cemetery and its elaborate monuments

Kenilworth

Oswald J. Nitschke House

49 South 21 St. | 908-276-9090

- Guided tours in English and Spanish of this circa-1880 home and its teaching garden, including a “Three Sisters” garden and a World War I Victory Garden
- Interactive program portrays the everyday life of an immigrant family in a suburb during the late 1800s/early 1900s
- Exhibits: “New Orange During the American Revolution” spotlights local people and places with Revolutionary War ties; “Generations of Hope” portrays the hopes and challenges facing newcomers to New Orange/Kenilworth in the late 1800s and beyond; “Through the Eyes of a Child” explores life as a child in the late 1800s; “New Orange/Kenilworth—The Plan, The Place, The People” includes a timeline of this community’s development

Grounds and building are wheelchair-accessible; elevator on site.

Free parking in front of building, on the street and in municipal lot across the street.

Mountainside

Deacon Andrew Hetfield House ★

Constitution Plaza, Watchung Ave. (off Birch Hill Rd.)
908-233-3135 | mountainsidehistory.org

- Ongoing tours of this circa-1760 house
- Local historian and model-maker John Sileo discusses the Battle of Bunker Hill, augmented by his hand-crafted diorama depicting the famed Revolutionary War battle
- Browse the restored circa-1818 Levi Cory House Village Shop

Entry to house interior is via a two-step porch (not fully wheelchair-accessible).

Ample parking in the adjacent library parking lot.

New Providence

Salt Box Museum ★

1350 Springfield Ave. | 908-665-1034
newprovidencehistorical.com

- Tours of this mid-1800s farmhouse, displaying fascinating artifacts and tools
- Saturday only: Mason Room Archives: Explore local maps, photos, newspapers, personal journals and records in the archives of New Providence Historical Society, nearby at the rear of New Providence Memorial Library, 377 Elkwood Ave., New Providence; 908-665-1034.
- Saturday only: Guided Tours of Church Graveyard depart at 12:30 and 1:30 pm from New Providence Presbyterian Church (across from Salt Box), 1307 Springfield Ave. Tour includes graves of local founding families and Revolutionary War soldiers. To reserve a tour (suggested), email NPcemeterytours@gmail.com with name, preferred time and number of people.

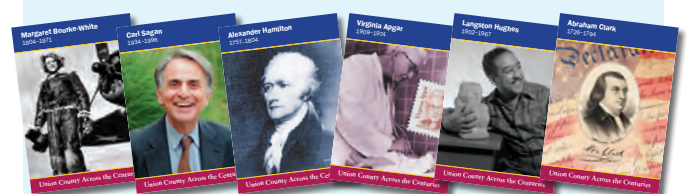

Meet 10 min. before departure time, on sidewalk by church lot.

Library building is wheelchair-accessible; Salt Box Museum is not.

Park on the street for Salt Box Museum; in the church lot for the cemetery tour; or in the Library Lot for the Mason Room.

Union County History Trading Cards are available at most of the sites listed in this booklet.

Plainfield

Drake House Museum

602 West Front St. | 908-755-5831
drakehouseplainfieldnj.org

- Tours of this 1746 house, where George Washington consulted with his officers during the Revolutionary War
- Honoring the nation's 250th, the "Tree of Life" quilt will be displayed. Reportedly made by the daughter of John Hart, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, this rarely displayed quilt is part of the textile collection of the Historical Society of Plainfield.
- Interact with Private Moore, part of George Washington's Life Guard, scheduled to appear with Revolutionary War gear

Grounds and 1st floor are wheelchair-accessible.

To park on site, enter at traffic light. An accessible parking space is available. Or, park on local side-streets.

Plainfield Friends (Quaker) Meeting House

225 Watchung Ave. | clerk@plainfieldquakers.org
FB: RahwayAndPlainfieldQuakerMeeting

Open Saturday only
Closed Sunday

- Visit one of the oldest houses of worship in Union County, in continuous use since 1788, with hand-hewn beams and benches fashioned by some of Plainfield's earliest families. This local meeting community dates back to 1686 and continues to today.

Wheelchair-accessible building, with an accessible parking space.

Park in lot on site; or park on local streets.

Rahway

African American History & Heritage Learning Center

261 Central Ave. | 732-382-0541
FB: African American History and Heritage Learning Center

- Guided tours of this site, where an 1800s one-room schoolhouse once stood, known as "the Rahway School for Colored Children"
- Guess the purpose of antique tools displayed

Entrance at back is wheelchair-accessible (one low step).

Park on street in front, or park in Ebenezer Church lot.

Rahway

Merchants & Drovers Tavern Museum

1632 St. George Ave. (corner of Westfield Ave.)
732-381-0441 | merchantsanddrovers.org

- Tour this restored building, which served as a tavern and hotel from the 1790s to the 1920s, then a stagecoach stop in the early 1800s — docents on hand will answer questions
- Permanent history exhibit on 2nd floor about
- Quill-writing activity — try your hand at writing like the founders did, with a quill dipped in ink
- Sunday only: Demonstration of traditional ice-cream making using reproduction 1700s equipment and recipes. Taste a sample, and learn about the history of ice cream in Colonial and Early America.
- Adjacent Rahway Cemetery dates to the early 1700s, holding notable interments including a signer of the Declaration of Independence, Civil War veterans, an enslaved woman, and other people of significance

1st floor is wheelchair-accessible, including restroom. Brief navigation of gravel lot to enter building. Upper floors, including permanent exhibit, require climbing stairs. For virtual tour of upper floors (video shown on 1st floor), call ahead to 732-381-0441.

Parking available in lot behind the museum and on local streets.

Union County Performing Arts Center

1601 Irving St. | 732-499-8226 | ucpac.org

Closed Saturday
Open Sunday only

- Sunday, 12 noon: On the Main Stage, a brief presentation about American history features events in and around Rahway; accompanied by educational handout and poster series in the lobby. Concludes with a reading of the Declaration of Independence, performed by local students.
- Guided tours after the presentation (tours run until 4 pm) of this historic 1928 Vaudeville-era theatre boasting a rare Wurlitzer — learn what it takes to present live stage performances today

Building is wheelchair-accessible. Accessible parking behind the building, with ramp to enter building. ADA seating is available. Assisted listening devices available upon request.

Street parking is free on Sundays, and the Hamilton Stage lot is always free and located nearby at 360 Hamilton Street, Rahway.

Roselle

Abraham Clark House ★

101 W. 9th Ave. | 732-221-7211

- This house, a replica of the home of Abraham Clark, is the headquarters of the NJ Society of the Sons of the American Revolution (SAR) and its library
- New display about Abraham Clark, a signer of the Declaration of Independence and a U.S. Congressman
- On display: memorabilia and artifacts related to the Revolutionary War, Civil War, World War I, SAR, DAR, and Roselle history — including eyeglasses, toys and slippers from the Colonial era, and Revolutionary War maps

Building interior is not wheelchair-accessible.

Ample street parking available.

Scotch Plains

Frazer House ★

1451 Raritan Rd. | frazerhouse.org

- Tour this restored 1700s farmstead to learn the significance of this site on the Battle of the Short Hills Historic Trail
- Saturday: Children's games and activities
- Sunday: March to Yorktown: Special event about the Washington-Rochambeau Revolutionary Trail (details below)
- Community garden, pumpkin patch, and bake sale with cookies and fall specialties

Historic building is fully ADA-compliant, including restroom.

Ample parking available on site.

Sunday, Oct. 18

The March to Yorktown – presented by Washington-Rochambeau Trail Alliance of NJ

Frazer House, 1451 Raritan Rd., Scotch Plains

- Generals Washington and Rochambeau are on hand, meeting visitors and discussing the allied army's march to Yorktown, Virginia, to fight a decisive siege, leading to the surrender of the British
- Music by the NJ Fife & Drums Corps — hear military and patriotic music that guided American troops during the march to Yorktown and in battle

wrta-of-nj.org | @WRTA-NJ

Scotch Plains

Osborn Cannonball House Museum ★

1840 Front St. | 908-757-1885 (weekends)

historicalsocietyspnj.org

- Costumed docents providing tours of this circa-1750 home steeped in Revolutionary War history
- Stone cutter demonstrating 1700s stone-carving methods, honoring Jonathan Hand Osborn, a family member here who was a renowned artisan and stone cutter — presentation includes a hands-on opportunity for people of all ages
- Display of Colonial-era clothing, to celebrate our nation's 250th
- For kids: Colonial-themed craft and an early Halloween treat

Rails assist in step-up to side (main) entrance; interior is not wheelchair-accessible.

Parking available behind the Municipal Building (around the corner) or on local streets.

Shady Rest Country Club

820 Jerusalem Rd. | 908-490-1577

preserveshadyrest.org

- Ongoing tours, videos and documentaries about this site — the first black-owned country club in the United States, which hosted performances by musical luminaries including Duke Ellington and Ella Fitzgerald
- Live jazz music from 1 to 4 pm
- Golf — enter the putting contest (with prizes) on Shady Rest's historic putting green
- Free miniature golf
- Soul food available to purchase

Building is wheelchair-accessible, including restroom.

Ample parking on site, including accessible spaces.

Springfield

Cannon Ball House ★

126 Morris Ave. | 973-912-4464

SpringfieldNJHistory@gmail.com

- Costumed docents provide tours of this circa-1741 home, displaying household, farm and military artifacts depicting life in Springfield before and after the Revolutionary War
- Visitors are invited to "sign the Declaration with a Patriot" — this Declaration of Independence replica with community signatures will be preserved as a Semiquincentennial memento for future displays. Be a part of history!

Building is not wheelchair-accessible by ramp, however entrance at rear is just one step up. Printed brochure available on request.

Parking available on site (limited) and next door at 150 Morris Ave.

Summit

Carter House ★

90 Butler Parkway | 908-277-1747
summithistoricalsociety.org

- Tours of this 1741 house include its original Dutch door, Colonial kitchen, early-1800s dining room, and Victorian-era library
- Artifacts, documents and archives related to local history
- Porch decked with colorful bunting, ideal for picture-taking
- Shop offers handmade items and gifts with local themes

Ramp at the back of the house provides barrier-free access to the May research room, exhibit room and Colonial kitchen. There is one step to access the restroom and the rest of the house. Garage is wheelchair-accessible.

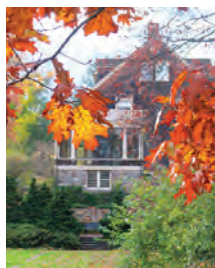

Ample free parking on the street, or park in the gravel lot on site.

Reeves-Reed Arboretum

165 Hobart Ave. | 908-273-8787
reeves-reedarboretum.org

Open Saturday only, 10 am–4 pm
Closed Sunday

- Guided Horticulture & History Tours at 10:30 am and 1:30 pm (meet at the Visitors Center)
- Visit the public garden, education resource center, and living history museum, with 13.5 acres of pastoral lawns and trails on this historic estate
- Grab a Map & Guide at the Visitors Center for a self-guided walk through the grounds and gardens: Wildflower Trail has interpretive signage highlighting the property's history; replica of the original Revolutionary War "beacon on the hill"
- History exhibit displays artifacts and photographs of the Reeves, Reed, and Wisner families
- Art exhibit in Wisner House

New ADA-accessible pathway, "A Path for All," links all garden areas. Buildings are wheelchair-accessible.

Park on site (accessible parking is available) or on local streets.

Wallace Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church

138-142 Broad St.

- Tour includes a presentation about Reverend Dr. Florence S. Randolph, the pastor here for 20 years, who advocated for justice, equality, women's suffrage and civil rights

Building is wheelchair-accessible. Chairlift is available.

Parking lot at rear of church. Street parking also available.

Summit

Twin Maples

214 Springfield Ave. | 908-273-0301
twinmaplessummit.org

- Tour this 1908 Colonial Revival estate home, with a facade resembling the White House, a lavish entry hall, a ballroom, and a "secret bath" tucked beneath the staircase
- Sunday, 1:30–2:30 pm: Lecture: "Women and the American Revolution" — historian Joel Farkas presents a fascinating look at the important roles women played in society and the Revolutionary War effort during the late 1700s. In honor of our nation's 250th, the lecture explores the contributions of women during this pivotal period in American history.

Building is wheelchair-accessible.

Free parking on site.

Union

Caldwell Parsonage ★

909 Caldwell Ave. | 908-687-7977 | unionnjhistory.com

- Meet Hannah Caldwell and Reverend James Caldwell, local heroes of the American Revolution
- Exhibit: "250 Years of the History of Union (Connecticut Farms)"
- Make your own lemonade and your own butter
- Hands-on activities: knife drawing and use of two-man saw
- Activities for kids: Make a tricorne hat or a girl's bonnet; make a church doll and buzz-saw toys
- Play "Nine Men's Morris" and other Colonial-era games
- Vintage postcards on sale for $1 each

Building is wheelchair-accessible.

Parking available on street, and in municipal lot near Union Police Dept., two blocks away on Caldwell Ave.

Donald M. Payne Vauxhall Meeting Center

333 Russell St. (Vauxhall) | 908-688-2797
vhs1860@yahoo.com

Closed Saturday
Open Sunday only

- Displays and information about the history of the Vauxhall section of Union, presented by Vauxhall Historical Society

Building is wheelchair-accessible and fully ADA-compliant.

Meeting Center has its own parking lot.

Union

Connecticut Farms Church

888 Stuyvesant Ave. | 908-688-3164 | ctfarms.org

- Tour the church and historic cemetery grounds — hear about the Revolutionary War battle that took place right in front of this church; the cemetery holds graves of soldiers who fought for American independence, as well as graves of Hessian and British soldiers
- View artifacts recently found on church grounds, including musket balls from the Revolutionary War
- Ring the 600-pound bell
- Crafts and baked goods for sale

Interior is not wheelchair-accessible, except lower level.

Park in lot behind church, off of W. Chestnut St.

Liberty Hall Museum

1003 Morris Ave. | 908-527-0400 | libertyhall.kean.edu

- Visit Liberty Hall, the Revolutionary-era home built by William Livingston, New Jersey's first elected governor (depending on pending interior work, tours of the main house may not be available)
- Visitors Center (the Blue House)
- Stroll the gardens, featuring historical horticulture including some of New Jersey's oldest trees
- Sunday, 1 pm–2:30 pm: Family Fun Day, part of the "Liberty Learners 250 Celebration" — Discover the battles of Springfield and Connecticut Farms. Meet the "ghost" of Hannah Caldwell. Discover why Union County was and still is very important to New Jersey. Fee may apply. For tickets and details, visit libertyhall.kean.edu.

Visitors Center (the Blue House) is fully ADA-accessible, including restroom. Parking lot and pathways are gravel. Grounds are level.

Tours of the main house and some portions of Family Fun Day are not ADA-accessible for people unable to use stairs.

Westfield

Burial Grounds of the Presbyterian Church

137 Mountain Ave. (across from 140 Mountain Ave.)

- Guided tours available any time both days (12–5 pm, first come, first served) about the history of this cemetery and the people buried here, where graves date back to 1737

Use either of two gates into the cemetery. The gate farther from East Broad St. is wheelchair-accessible via the sidewalk. Terrain in unpaved historic section may be difficult for wheelchair-users. On request, the tour will be given with views seen from the sidewalk.

Parking available in church lot across from the Burial Grounds, adjacent to 140 Mountain Ave.

Westfield

Miller-Cory House Museum

614 Mountain Ave. | 908-232-1776
millercoryhouse.com

- All weekend, will museum showcase 18th-century colonial cuisine with authentic colonial-era open-hearth cooking, using period recipes and techniques — samples available to taste
- Docent-led tours of the circa-1740 farmhouse
- Intermittent demonstrations of fiber crafts

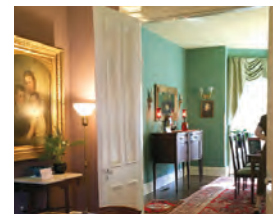

Interior of house is not wheelchair-accessible.

Street parking only.

Reeve History & Cultural Resource Center

314 Mountain Ave. | 908-654-1794
westfieldhistoricalsociety.org

- Docent-led tours of this Italianate Victorian-era home
- Step back into the 1920s via a special exhibit of artifacts illuminating local Westfield history and community life, showing how our nation's 150th anniversary was observed and celebrated back in 1926
- Activities for kids: Revolutionary War coloring sheets, and a scavenger hunt centered on Westfield's Gold Star street signs
- Display about Virginia Apgar
- Saturday only: Annual AppleFest

Grounds are accessible for all visitors. House interior is not wheelchair-accessible. Website offers a virtual tour of the interior.

Limited parking in lot on site; street parking recommended.

Both Saturday & Sunday

Mural of the Battle of Spanktown (Rahway)

Presented by Atlas Pythagoras Lodge #10

1011 Central Ave., Westfield

- Presentation of a large-scale oil-on-canvas mural (26 feet wide) depicting the Battle of Spanktown (now Rahway). Painted by artist Lloyd Garrison in 1988, the painting depicts the 1777 battle of American militia and Continental forces versus British forces — a 12-hour engagement during the Forage War portion of the American Revolution.
- Handout provides details about the battle, the artist, and this painting.

Parking and entrance at back of building (no entry at front), including an ADA-accessible ramp and accessible parking.

COUNTY OF UNION

Board of County Commissioners

Joseph C. Bodek, Chairman
Rebecca Williams, Vice-Chair
James E. Baker, Jr.
Michèle S. Delisfort
Lourdes M. Leon
Alexander Mirabella
Stanley J. Neron
Kimberly Palmieri-Mouded
Joseph Signorello III

Edward T. Oatman, County Manager
Amy Crisp Wagner, Deputy County Manager
James E. Pellettiere, Clerk of the Board

Department of Parks and Recreation

Victoria Durbin-Drake, Director

Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs

Kathy Kakalettris, Administrator
John Prescott, History Programs Coordinator

633 Pearl Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07202
908-558-2550 | NJ Relay 711
culturalinfo@ucnj.org • www.ucnj.org/cultural

Made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State

BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE

UNION COUNTY
BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Department of Parks and Recreation

Office of Cultural & Heritage Affairs